Souhrn

I am a Senior Frontend / Fullstack Engineer with a passion for building complex applications from scratch and a reputation for rapid problem-solving.

My core expertise is in Vue.js, React.js, and TypeScript, backed by robust full-stack experience, including leading the development of an EV charging platform with its own payment system and Docker-based service infrastructure.

With a strong foundation in Cybersecurity and currently pursuing a B.S. in Applied Computer Science, I excel at tackling difficult technical challenges, learning quickly, and leading projects to successful completion.
